MEGAN J. BRENNAN	:
UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE	:
POSTMASTER GENERAL, et al.	:

ORDER

AND NOW, this 19th day of March, 2019, upon consideration of the Plaintiff David W. Taylor's motions to amend, Defendants Megan Brennan, United States Postal Service Postmaster General (USPS), American Postal Workers Union AFL-CIO, National (National) and American Postal Workers Union AFL-CIO, Philadelphia, PA Area Local 89's (Local) motions to dismiss, the responses thereto, the parties' presentations at the August 16, 2018, oral argument on the motions, and for the reasons set forth in the accompanying Memorandum, it is ORDERED:

1. Taylor's "Motion to Amend[] Complaint" (Document 12) is DISMISSED as moot;
2. Taylor's "Motion to Amend[] Complaint" (Document 15) is DISMISSED as moot;
3. Taylor's Motion for Leave to Amend (Document 20) is GRANTED and the Amended Complaint attached thereto shall be deemed filed;

4. The National's Motion to Dismiss (Document 7) is GRANTED¹;
5. The Local's Motion to Dismiss (Document 11) is GRANTED;
6. USPS's Motion to Dismiss (Document 17) is GRANTED; and

7. Taylor shall have until April 18, 2019, to file a second amended complaint that corrects the pleading deficiencies identified in the accompanying Memorandum. Failure to file a second amended complaint within the time permitted may result in dismissal of such claims with prejudice.
